

USA PROPERTIES FUND INC. HIRES ARCHITECT SEAN REYNOLDS AS DEVELOPMENT MANAGER

ROSEVILLE—Sean Reynolds, an architect with almost 20 years of experience, has been hired as Development Manager for USA Properties Fund Inc., one of the largest developer-builder-managers of multifamily communities in the West.

Reynolds, most recently a senior executive with the Dahlin Group in Pleasanton, has extensive experience with multifamily design and entitlement. Reynolds designed and managed numerous affordable and high-end multifamily projects while with the Dahlin Group.

The architecture firm recently designed a project in Santa Clara for USA Properties Fund. Reynolds served as the Project Architect.

“His eye for detail and design is going to be a great asset to the department as well as the company, as he manages the entitlements and architecture of our upcoming projects,” said Art May, Senior Vice President of USA Properties Fund.

Reynolds lives in Granite Bay with his wife. The couple have a 5-year-old daughter and 3-year-old son.
